SUPPORT OF THE UNITED STATES

Wanted by France in Efforts in Germany.

VIVIANI MAKES HIS MISSION VERY PLAIN

Comes To Get Assurance of Full Approval.

French Envoy Has Little To Say of the League of Nations in His Official Conversations in the National Capital.

Washington, April 1.—The haze of uncertainty that has surrounded the real purpose of Rene Viviani's mission to the United States has been lifted somewhat by the preliminary conversations which he has had with administration officials and leading United States senators.

Those who have talked with the ex-premier of France have left him with the distinct impression that, regardless of what happens to the league of nations, France wants above all else the assurance of American support in whatever measures she may feel compelled to take against Germany in the enforcement of the treaty of Versailles.

So far, in his interchanges of ideas with Washington officials, M. Viviani has "soft-pedaled" the league. He has dwelt almost entirely upon his country's economic situation and the dependence which France places on the strict enforcement of peace terms, particularly in the matter of reparations.

Those who have conversed with M. Viviani do not contend that France has "scraped" the league, but they believe that France has given up hope of persuading the United States to enter it. And accepting defeat in this issue, is now devoting her efforts to obtaining the best thing—the moral or active support of the United States in a stiff German policy. This is the primary purpose of the Viviani mission, in the belief of those who have been in touch with developments since the ex-premier arrived in Washington.

The question of obtaining reparations from Germany is bound up with the question of France's payment of the $2,000,000,000 which she owes the United States. So far, according to those who have conferred with M. Viviani, there has been no hint or suggestion that France seeks to have this debt canceled. But the significance of M. Viviani's stressing France's severe economic plight and her dependence on the German settlement in these conversations has not been lost on officials.

The plain inference which M. Viviani evidently intends to convey is: "You help me get the money and I'll pay you."

The purpose of the Viviani mission, as it has so far been disclosed, is to get to the bottom of the situation, to learn, if possible, the "harding plan" for international association, or what policy this government may be expected to take during the next four years toward Europe.

LABOR SURPLUS IN THE COUNTRY

The Industrial and Commercial Centers Flooded.

A GREATLY REDUCED VOLUME OF TRADE

Reported by Federal Reserve Board Today.

Middle West Relief Agencies Report More Unemployment Than at Any Time Since 1915—Figures Given.

Washington, April 1.—Unemployment due to reduced volume of trade, continues to be one of the most unfavorable factors in the general economic situation, the federal reserve board announced today. Except for better labor demand in a few special industries because of seasonal orders, the board found employment at a still lower level than in former seasons.

The only bright spot in the disturbed labor situation was noted in parts of the United States where much unemployment of labor has been absorbed by the demand from the country districts. A sharp increase in activity in these districts attracting an industrial surplus from other sections is largely seasonal and is not regarded by officials as an improvement of permanent nature.

Larger operations in a few selected industries, notably automobiles, tires and footwear, reduced the ranks of the jobless in those industries, but the effect upon the labor situation as a whole was considered negligible.

Review of the labor situation in March revealed generally a large labor surplus in all parts of the United States, chiefly in the larger industrial and commercial centers of the West and Middle West. Citing as an example of the general situation, the conditions in Pennsylvania, the board said official figures disclosed 147,000 were unemployed last month, an increase of 7,000 over the preceding month. In the cities of Philadelphia, Altoona, Harrisburg, Johnstown and Scranton.

In the Middle West, relief agencies reported more unemployment than at any time since 1915. Increases in the jobless ranging from ten to fifteen per cent being shown in Kentucky, Missouri, Indiana and Arkansas.

Conditions were said to be but slightly less favorable in the Illinois and other reserve districts.

Departure on Journey. Washington, April 1.—Secretary of Labor Davis will leave this afternoon, for Northeast Labor bureau going to Chicago.

PRESIDENT AND CABINET BUSY

Seeking Answer to American Railroad Puzzle.

CHANGES NEEDED IN CUMMINS-ESCH LAW

But No Definite Plan for Revision Is Reached.

President Expected To Devote Part of Coming Message to Congress on Rail Matters. Mass of Data at Hand.

Washington, April 1.—President Harding and his cabinet are, today, studiously seeking an answer to the railroad puzzle.

The president and his cabinet it was learned, are convinced that the Cummins-Esch law, controlling the transportation systems of the nation must be radically changed but thus far no definite program for revision of this law has been advanced which is satisfactory.

The president is expected to devote a portion of his message to the forthcoming congress to the question of the railroads and is anxious to suggest definite remedies, but out of the mass of data and suggestions laid before him, there has been no real constructive plan for lifting the railroads out of the mire of financial difficulties.

Having conferred at length with Chairman Barton, of the railroad labor board and Chairman Clark of the interstate commerce commission, with regard to the entire railroad situation, it is expected that the president will take up the problem with his cabinet, today.

The question of rate reductions is absorbing a great deal of the attention of the cabinet, for while it is held by many that a rate reduction is necessary, there are others who contend that reductions are necessary only upon certain commodities and that present rates can stand on the commodities of high value, which are not transported in great quantities in interstate commerce.

Jewell Requested. Washington, April 1.—The request of B. M. Jewell, that President Harding call a conference with railway workers has not yet been brought to the attention of the president, it was stated at the White House, this afternoon.

STEAMSHIP IS SUNK TODAY

Seven Passengers and Three of Crew Missing.

TWO STEAMSHIPS ARE IN COLLISION

Accident Reported Off Point Wilson, Near Seattle.

Fleet of Launches and Tugs Rushed to Scene and Are Soon Engaged in Search of Waters for Survivors.

Seattle, Washington, April 1.—Seven passengers and three members of the crew of the steamship Governor, rammed and sunk by the steamship West Hartland off Point Wilson, early this morning are not accounted for according to information received here today by the Pacific Steamship company owners of the Governor.

It was declared, however, that these persons may have gotten off in a boat and will be picked up by the fleet of launches and tugs now searching the waters near the scene of the wreck.

May Be Safe. Port Townsend, Wash., April 1.—The passenger steamship Governor, sank off Point Wilson near here at 12:50 o'clock this morning with the possible loss of seven passengers and three members of the crew.

The Governor was rammed by the freighter, West Hartland and remained about forty-five minutes, permitting most if not all, the passengers and crew to be taken off in the Governor's own lifeboats, assisted by lifeboats from the West Hartland.

The Governor's lifeboats are reported ashore and it is possible the seven persons who have not been accounted for made their way to safety in the three boats which were not manned.

On Census Board. Columbus, April 1.—The state industrial commission today announced the appointment of Mrs. Evelyn F. Snow, of Vermont, as a member of the state motion-picture censor board succeeding Miss Eleanor Parker, Dalton, who resigned to become private secretary to former Governor Cox.

MAY BE THE NEXT ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF

Major-General James C. Harbord, who, according to rumors in official circles in Washington, is slated to succeed General Peyton C. March as chief of staff, General Harbord who was chief of staff of the A. E. F. and commander of the service of supply in France, rose from the ranks.

Mrs. Muenchinger died last January leaving her $100,000 estate to Burton J. Hubbel, an employee. Miss Hubbel was left penniless and is now working for $10 a week after ten years of comparative luxury.

A PRODUCTION TAX IS PLANNED

Coal, Oil and Gas To Be Taxed for Ohio Schools.

PROVISION MADE IN OHIO SENATE BILL

Measure Introduced for Benefit of Weak School Districts in the Buckeye State.

Columbus, April 1.—The levying of a tax of 1/2 of one per cent on gross production of coal, oil, gas and other mineral interests in Ohio for school purposes is provided for in a bill introduced by Senator Jones, Traubville county. The senator proposes that the weak school districts, now supported by a direct state levy, shall be supported from the earnings of the mineral interests in the counties where most of the weak school districts are located.

Passage of the Brand bill seeking to repeal the school revenue law enacted a year ago and to substitute a state levy of 15 of a mill for the support of weak school districts, has been recommended by the senate schools committee.

The Dunn bill, providing for reorganization of state departments has been introduced by the senate organization committee so as to place the Wheeler experiment station under joint control of the proposed director of agriculture and the trustees of Ohio State university.

Senator Chapman, Pickaway county, introduced a bill giving the state utilities commission control over electric wires over railroad tracks.

A bill, by Senator Cornell, Wayne county, requires the state auditor to audit the state workmen's compensation fund and to approve action of the state industrial commission relative to buying and selling bonds.

The senate adopted the resolution by Senator Day, Cleveland, asking congress to provide for the reorganization of the war-risk insurance bureau and other federal boards dealing with veterans of the World war.

Senator Dowe, Miami county, introduced a resolution urging congress to change the anti-trust laws so as to provide for consolidation of telephone companies.

The senate, by a vote of eighteen to nineteen, refused to override the action of the senate health committee which indefinitely postponed the bill by Senator Eddy, Richland county, seeking to provide for a separate state licensing board for chiropractors. A similar bill introduced by Senator Eddy, was defeated in the house.

The bills were passed by the senate providing for four-year terms for county clerks and receivers, starting with the next county election, next year.

RAIL EMPLOYEES ASK FOR PARLEY

Would Meet with Executives of Railroads.

MESSAGE IS SENT TO THE PRESIDENT

Scheme To Settle All Rail Labor Problems.

Three Phases of the Labor Situation Are Occupying Attention of the Union Leaders and Employers Today

Chicago, April 1.—Three phases of the labor situation, including a strike on appeal to President Harding and a refusal to accept wage decreases held interest here today.

Union leaders claimed that 1,100 men were on strike in the plants of the Independent packers and the William Davis Packing company. The men walked out, late yesterday, claiming that the companies had violated the agreement between the packers and their employees.

B. M. Jewell, head of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, and other leaders among railway workers were awaiting a reply from President Harding, today, to their request that he call a parley of representatives of the railways and their employees to discuss wages and working conditions. The unions wish President Harding to induce the railways to do what they have heretofore refused to do—meet the unions as a national unit and formulate wage scales and working rules covering the entire country.

Officials of the Chicago Building Trades council have declined a proposal by the building contractors to reduce wages of mechanics and laborers from $1.25 and $1.00 an hour, respectively, to $1.00 and seventy cents an hour. The contractors declared that $100,000,000 worth of new building would be contracted for if wages were reduced. Although officials of the council refused the wage reductions, they announced that the matter would be submitted to the delegates from the various building trades unions at a meeting to be held Friday.

Need Proposal. Chicago, April 1.—Railroad employees laid a proposal before President Harding for a conference between labor and the railroads in an attempt to settle the whole transportation problem now confronting the country, so far as labor is concerned.

In a telegram signed by B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor, the chief executive was asked to call a conference between the railway executives and the labor unions to undertake to compose the differences on all points in dispute. Jewell declared the unions had "every faith" that such a conference would be productive of immediate salutary results.

The text of the message follows: "Two millions railroad workers and their millions of dependants are vitally interested in your efforts to effect a solution of the railroad problem. Obviously, no policy or program that is unacceptable to them will be productive of the much desired result of cooperation and, accordingly, therefore, we urge respectfully that we be given a voice in the determination of what is to be done."

"The first essential to peace and orderly progress in the transportation industry is a speedy settlement of the controversies between the carriers and the railway employees over national agreements and wages and it is our belief that you can bring this about by the application of the principle laid down by you in your inaugural address, when you said, 'I had rather submit our industrial controversies to the conference table in advance than to the settlement table after conflict and suffering.'"

"Accordingly, we urge that you use your executive influence to bring about a conference between the railway executives as they are organized nationally and the railroad unions as they are organized nationally to undertake to compose the differences on all points in dispute."

Look Over Views. Chicago, April 1.—Characterizing the claim of the railroads that disaster faces the country and bankruptcy is in store for the roads unless the national agreements governing employees' wages and working conditions are abrogated, as the same methods used in England, in

MAY MODIFY PENALTIES

Council of Ambassadors Plans for Changes.

GERMANY WILL GET BETTER TREATMENT

Effort To Prevent Stagnation in Business—Germany Seeks American Views.

Paris, April 1.—The allies' customs penalties upon Germany are to be slightly modified, according to an official announcement following the meeting of the council of ambassadors, today. A sub-commission was appointed to redraft and to modify the customs sanctions in order to prevent business stagnation. The ambassadorial council will meet again, tomorrow, to approve the report of the sub-commission.

The penalties were imposed because of Germany's refusal to meet the Paris indemnity terms. They are effective along the zone of the Rhine occupied by the allied troops.

Conversations. Washington, April 1.—Informal conversations have been carried on between German officials and Ellis Loring Dunsen, American commissioner in Berlin, with regard to Germany's attitude towards payment of the reparations demanded by the allies. It was learned at the state department, today, that the conversations had been entirely informal and for the purpose of reporting correctly to the administration the views of Germany on the question of reparations.

State department officials refused to confirm reports current in Europe that Germany has sent a formal note to the United States on the question of reparations, offering to assume a portion of the allied debt to the United States. Nor would the state department confirm a report that Germany has indicated to the United States that she recognizes her responsibility in carrying out completely the terms of reparation.

GEDDIS WILL BE ASKED TO APPEAR

Frank P. Walsh, counsel for the Irish republic, announced this afternoon.

Walsh made his statement in reply to a statement issued by the British embassy, yesterday, attacking the report of the American commission on conditions in Ireland.

STORE NEWS

Friday, April 1

If the Wholesale Prices of Rugs Won't Come Down We Are Going to Bring Down The Retail Price Anyway

Tomorrow we start a Great April Rug Sale—Not at Small Price Concessions—But at Radical Reductions Which Bring Prices Down to the Point Where Folks Will be Glad to Buy the New Rugs They Need

We've grown tired of waiting for the manufacturer's prices of rugs to come down to the point where we feel they should be—in comparison with the other merchandise in our store.

The great rug manufacturers entrenched with huge capital and cash resources, seem determined to keep rug prices from declining to any great extent until after the present Spring selling season is over.

We, as merchants, do not believe this to be good business policy. We believe that a great many families in this community really need new rugs—and are merely waiting until the cheaper price levels are reached before purchasing.

We believe that these families would like to buy new rugs this season. And we do not believe that they will buy rugs, however, at the prices based on the present wholesale cost.

For this reason we are going to do right now what we think the manufacturers will be obliged to do later on. We are going to remark all of our rug stock—at prices which will bring them down very close to the values of 1914 and 1915.

Practically all of our entire stock consists of choice, high grade, new rugs of the finest quality—virtually all of them owned by us at the higher price levels.

The reductions which we are making in this extraordinary sale, starting tomorrow, means an actual loss of a large amount of money.

We believe that such a movement, however, will be to the best interest of everybody in this whole community.

Everyone in this vicinity who needs new rugs of any kind this year can not afford to overlook the wonderful opportunity which this extraordinary Rug Sale provides.

- Finest New Spring Patterns in 9 by 12 Tapestry Rugs at $25, $29.50 and $35.

- Exquisite, Finest Quality 9 by 12 Wilton Rugs at $79.50 and $95.
- Several Beautiful Patterns in 9 by 12 Wilton Rugs at only $59.50.

We quote no comparative prices to influence your judgment. The prices speak for themselves. We promise you that the reductions will be found to be exceptional—and the values are the best in years. We believe that these prices will be found to be the lowest in the state of Ohio today.

MONARCHIST COUP FAILURE

"The allies will neither recognize nor tolerate the restoration of the Hapsburgs," it was stated. "The allies count upon the Hungarian government to prevent this—revolutionary attempt, which would have disastrous consequences for Hungary."

The foreign office has no official confirmation of the press report that Admiral Horthy has resigned. It was explained at the foreign office that the allies are not interfering but are leaving the opposition measures to Czechoslovakia, Roumania and Jugoslavia, confident that these states will not permit Charles to ascend the Hungarian throne.

A Blockade.

Paris, April 1.—The allies are considering the blockade of Hungary, as a result of the attempted royalist coup by ex-King Charles, according to the newspaper, L'Eclair, today.

The Hungarian situation was considered at a meeting of the council of ambassadors, this morning, but decisive action was postponed on account of the contradictory nature of the reports from Budapest and Vienna.

In consequence of the exchange of diplomatic conversations between Paris, London, Bucharest and Belgrade, it is understood that the ambassadorial council will later issue a joint note reiterating their previous opposition to the return of the Hap-sburg family to Hungary or Austria.

The Roumanian minister was in communication with the government and later issued a statement advising the people to accept with reserve reports that Charles was marching upon Buda at the head of his troops.
The following Hapsburg despatch was received here, coming a Budapest telegram to the "Burger
Nachrichten."

Admiral Horthy has accepted his powers to Charles. Several garrisons have joined the monarchist cause acclaiming Charles. It is authoritatively reported that royalist troops are marching upon Budapest, carrying banners with portraits of Charles. Count Andrássy has been named premier by the royalists and has sent an ultimatum to Budapest.

(Note: It was reported in a Berlin despatch to the International News service, Thursday, that Count An-drássy had been appointed premier in a monarchist cabinet pro-claimed a "Szenvedemany" and that he was issuing an ultimatum to Budapest in the name of Charles, demanding that the regency make way for the restoration of the monarchy.)

The French socialist newspaper, Humanite, accuses the French government at Budapest with plotting with the Hungarian royalists for the restoration of the Hapsburgs.

L'Espresso Libre expressed concern over the effect in Germany of a successful monarchist coup in Hungary.
"If Charles is successful the Hohenzollerns will return to Berlin," declared this newspaper.

Horthy Resigns.

London, April 1.—It is reported that Admiral Horthy, regent of Hungary, has resigned in favor of former King Charles, said a Reuter despatch from Budapest, today.

Is Disguised.

London, April 1.—Former King
Charles, of Hungary, was disguised with a false beard and wore an ancient uniform when he slipped across the Swiss frontier into Austria, according to a Geneva despatch to the Daily News, today. Charles left Switzerland one week ago today, traveling in Alsace by way of Strasbourg. According to a Geneva despatch to the Daily Herald, Charles used a passport made out to a "British Red Cross worker."

MOYER CHOSEN C. O. & M. RELIEF PRESIDENT AGAIN

Annual Meeting and Banquet at Delaware Last Evening.

BOLSHEVIK STUNT IS PULLED BY SPEAKER

Next Meeting Will Be Held at Scioto Power Plant on April 27.

Members of the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Volunteer Relief Association held their annual meeting and election of officers at Delaware, Thursday night, and listened to an interesting address by Paul Jarvis, of the Constitutional Defense League.

Marion members of the association, seventy in number, went to Delaware on the six-o'clock interurban car and went at once to the Zion church, where an excellent dinner was served by the members of the Delaware Rebekah lodge. There were 150 at the banquet.

A. F. Vantolier, general manager of the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Electric company, acted as toastmaster and before the principal address there were a number of short talks by members. Mr. Vantolier announced that through some mishap the speaker had been arrested and requested C. O. Meyer, president of the association, to go to the city prison and make an effort to get the speaker released at least long enough to make his address.

Speaker Is Handcuffed.
In a few minutes Mr. Meyer returned with Mr. Jarvis, handcuffed and in the custody of a policeman. Jarvis first represented himself as an I. W. W. and gave a talk on the principles of the I. W. W. organization. He then answered the Bolsheviki arguments with a strong address on Americanism.

C. C. Meyer, Delaware, was requested president of the association and is now entering upon his third term in that office. E. C. Macken, Marion, was named vice president; H. C. Kitchner, Marion, secretary; treasurer, W. A. Clark, Delaware, chaplain, and C. C. Osborn, Strafford, sergeant-at-arms. Daniel Jones, Delaware, were elected trustees.

Reports of the year's work showed that the membership had increased from 123 to 178. Three applications were balloted on and fourteen received.

The association accepted the invitation of Mr. Van Dine to hold its next meeting at Scioto, the site of the new power plant. Mr. Van Dine stated that there would be refreshments for all the members and after the meeting they would be taken through the new plant. This meeting will be held Wednesday, April 27.

BANK-POLICE BURGLAR ALARM MAY BE PUT UP

Would Connect Institutions with Police Headquarters.

CONFERENCE IS HELD WITH CHIEF LAST NIGHT

Bankers Attend Meeting and Favor the Installation of Burglar Alarms.

The advisability of installing a special burglar-alarm system connecting all Marion banks and building-and-loan associations with the police department was discussed Thursday night at a conference of representatives of Marion financial institutions and Chief of Police J. W. Thompson and Fire Chief T. J. McFarland. The conference was held in the office of Chief Thompson.

The system would consist of the installation of burglar alarm boxes in all the financial institutions, so that in case of a burglary an alarm could be given the police merely by pulling a box, the boxes operating similar to fire alarm boxes. In the discussion it was brought out that the city contemplated installation of police call boxes, no action on the burglar alarm proposal was taken to await the coming of the other proposition of the banks seem to favor the installation of burglar alarms.

of Sara Taylor, music instructor at the Marion schools, and a great amount of credit is due her for her successful work. The high school orchestra, which furnished the music, likewise did very well and is deserving of praise.

Miss Margaret Johnson, the leading lady, played her role splendidly and her singing is believed to have been the best of the entire number.
Miss Mildred Trout and Chester Berry were the funmakers of the evening. These two displayed unusual dramatic ability and brought down the house several times with their unique caperings. The entire cast was good and the choruses added much to the production both in musical and dramatic effects.
The affair is undoubtedly a success and people who did not attend last evening will be assured of a good entertainment if they attend this evening's performance.

GERNICIDAL PROPERTIES OF LINOLEUM

The widespread movement for better sanitation in homes is a great impetus to linoleum laying. You know that linoleum is much more sanitary in wood floors because the linseed oil in linoleum itself tends to destroy germs.

An excellent example to show the housewife the germ-destroying action in linoleum is the following abstract of an article taken from a European technical journal:

"The experimenter worked on inlaid linoleum that was seven years old d found that the tendency of all bacteria in the room was to collect on the floor. He found that the virulent typhosus and streptococci or pus formers were killed in eight hours, and that all impure micro-organisms brought in by dirty shoes were killed. He also did some work on the comparison of the bacterial content of rooms laid with carpet and linoleum.
d found a wide difference in favor of linoleum."

"The bactericidal power of linoleum is due to the fact that acid gases, including formaldehyde and formic acid, strong bactericidal agents, are instantly given off as a result of the linoleum formation or ('oxidized linoleum')."

Come in and let us tell you more about linoleum, it will be very interesting.

REGISTRATION OF TITLE AND PARTITION SOUGHT

Charles E. Merkel Sues Presbyterian Church and Others.

JAMES E. RUSSELL IS GRANTED A DIVORCE

Clerk of Courts Orders Up
Judgment in Suit of Jane Luft Against City.

A petition for partition and registration of title was filed in the common pleas court Thursday afternoon by Charles E. Merkel against the First Presbyterian church, its trustees; a number of Masonic bodies and their trustees, the City of Marion, the director of public service of the city and a large number of the beneficiaries of the will of the late George E. Salmon. The petition was through Hoke W. Donlithen.

The plaintiff asks that he be awarded an undivided one-half of a large lot on the northwest corner of Mt. Vernon and Raleigh drive and received title to property by purchase. The plaintiff also relates that from July 1, 1908, until the time of his death, George E. Salmon owned an undivided one-half of the property and at his death Anna G. Salmon was given a life estate in the property.

Mrs. Salmon, the petition states, April 9, 1919, conveyed her life estate to Anna G. Mitchell, who was predecessor in title to the plaintiff, that Anna G. Salmon died November 18, 1920. Provisions of the will of the late George E. Salmon are incorporated in the petition. The plaintiff asks that all of the defendants be compelled to set forth their interest in the property, and their claims may be adjudged by the court in the proper proportions or be held null and void and that the title be quieted against the claim of all of the defendants. He also asks that his interest be set off to him, that all dower interest be barred and that partition of the real estate may be made.

Proceedings To Collect.
Proceedings to collect $1,139.88, alleged to be due the estate of Anna G. Salmon were instituted in the common pleas court Thursday afternoon by T. R. Smith and Dr. Fillmore Young, executors of the will of Mrs. Salmon. Seymour H. Wilson, Rena E. Wilson, Hester Jones and Frank Jones are named defendants in the petition filed through Justice Young and Mouser.

The plaintiffs allege there is due the estate from Seymour and Rena E. Wilson $1,139.88, the balance on a note for $1,250 given Anna G. Salmon June 26, 1914 and secured by a mortgage on lot No. 17 in Jacob Hatch's addition to Marion. They also state the property in question was later sold to Hester Jones and Frank Jones and the mortgage was assumed by the purchasers.

CLUB-HOUSE PROJECT FOR WOMEN BOOSTED

Canton Club Federation Head Outlines Successful Plan.

MRS. U. S. JOHNSON TELLS HOW CANTON DOES IT

The Mayor, Kiwanis Head and Chamber of Commerce Secretary Speak.

"Is Marion to have a woman's club home?" is now a subject of general discussion among the city's club women, who are banded together in more than twenty-two organizations into one great body—the Canton Club Federation of Women's Clubs, with about 700 active members and about 250 patronesses.

The woman's home proposition, the goal toward which for years the local federation has been striving, was brought up for general discussion before the club women Thursday afternoon at a luncheon given under the direction of the civic committee of the federation.

Mrs. U. S. Johnson, president of the Canton Federation of Women's Clubs, had been invited to give the women some ideas of how Canton secured its women's club home. The other speakers of the afternoon were local men, who had been asked to give their opinions on the subject.

The luncheon was held at the Trinity Baptist church and the Ladies' Aid society, of that church, served a most excellent menu, covers being placed for about 200 at attractively decorated tables.

Proposition Is Presented.

At the close of the luncheon Mrs. W. N. Harder, president of the City Federation, presided and spoke briefly on the proposed project of a club home for women. She said now that women have come into a greater responsibility they need a place where they can gather to discuss their ideas to a better advantage, so that they can do greater good for the community at large. She also spoke of the growth of the federation and of what an advantage a home would be to such a large body of women.

Mrs. Harder introduced Mrs. Johnson, a woman of a very charming personality, who spoke of the success the women of Canton have made in their home, which they purchased only last year at an expense of $43,000. They have over 600 members in the home, which was incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000. This stock was sold at $25 a share, the limit being forty shares to each person. The yearly dues are $10.

Just as Work Starts It.

Mrs. Johnson said the Red Cross workroom started the women of Canton in thinking of the advantages to be derived for civic good by getting women together. Posing the idea of their city's civic, literary and charitable work being done in one body, she said that they would have a home for women, as there were no suitable place in the city where they could meet regularly. She said that at first when they brought up the proposition they met with some opposition.

"My husband encouraged me by saying that every time a woman and a good advertisement," said Mrs. Johnson. "So we kept right on and sold our stock and now women are very anxious to get in, since they have seen what we have accomplished."

Mrs. Johnson said that they now have many school teachers, stenographers and other working women, as well as club women and that they expect to have their entire capital stock subscribed by their first anniversary, in July.

The property purchased by the Canton women has been remodeled and made into a very attractive woman's home and the expense was held but a few weeks ago. Mrs. Johnson described it as very beautiful and airy and said its homelike appearance and atmosphere had made a strong appeal to the men of Canton, who are now their biggest boosters. She said that a number of men have already been received to add to its attractiveness.

No Council of Men.

The speaker said that at first when the women decided to have a home they thought they would have a council of men, but later they decided they did not need it, as they would have their husbands and sweethearts behind them. She said they wanted the men to be in the background and that all they needed of the men was legal advice, and that the men were proud of the fact that their women had pushed to go ahead alone. The Canton home is provided with a place to serve meals and also where women not having homes can have the privilege of entertaining their company. The women even expect to provide a smoking room in the basement where men can wait for their wives. As the Y. W. C. A. of Canton takes care of girls under eighteen, only those above that age are taken into the home.

In closing Mrs. Johnson said:

"You women will never realize what you have missed, until you get a club home, and then you will wonder how you ever did without it. We have got to the place where women are not satisfied to stay at home all the time and they need some place to gather as well as do men. Modern conveniences have made work lighter in the homes and women have now more time on their hands to do other things outside the home."

Home at Ashabula.

Mrs. John H. Guthrie, chairman of the civic committee, to whom much credit was due for the success of the luncheon yesterday, has been in correspondence with various federations over the state having club homes, getting ideas on the home proposition, and yesterday she read a very interesting letter regarding the home in Ashabula, a city smaller than Marion, telling what the home means to that city and what is being accomplished by the women there.

Mayor T. E. Andrews spoke. He said he favored the proposition providing the women include the working girls in their new home. He said that in his work as mayor he had found that there is an absolute need for a home where working girls, whose only home is a boarding-house or hotel, can go for clean entertainment and where they can entertain their friends. "If this proposed home will have a place for the working girl, then I am for it, and it is for the betterment of our community and something we need, regardless of expense," he said.

Palmer's Assurance.

H. F. Palmer, secretary of the chamber of commerce, took Andrews' stand, that if the proposed home incorporated a provision for the working girl, then the chamber of commerce would stand back of it. He said it takes a lot of vision to put over any proposition, but that he felt that the club women have a good idea of what the city and their sisters need. He favored a home for women, saying that he felt that if men are entitled to be away from homes to their clubs and lodges, so is woman, as men and women are one and equal. Mr. Palmer said: "If this home incorporates a provision for the working girl it will be a success. If it does not, it ought to be a failure." He assured the women that if they undertook the proposition along the right lines, it would be backed by the chamber of commerce and they could ask and demand any support and encouragement it could give.

Kiwanis Head Speaks.

Dr. James W. McMurray, president of the Kiwanis club, said that a number of the members of the club with whom he had spoken regarding the women's proposition, had assured him they would favor the proposition and stand by it providing the women would make some provision for working girls. He spoke of how he thought this proposition should be taken up so as to best benefit the community. The women should take it up with an unselfish motive with the thought that they are doing it for some one else. He told them that as they all have different ideas, he thought they should crystallize them, so that they would have concrete ideas when they came to selling them. He advised them to think ahead and not prepare a home just for the present need, but to plan according to the growth of the city in the future.

J. W. Jacoby was asked to give some legal advice regarding the best plans for financing the project. He said that if they decided they wanted a home, to go ahead and buy it and that they need have no trouble in financing the project if they united in a desire for a club home, for he felt sure they could call in any body of men in the community and it would help them. He said it was all right to get different ideas from other cities which might be a help, but in the end to do it their own way, because they would have problems of their own to confront which would be different from those of other federations. He favored a home for women, saying they needed some place of their own to meet and talk over subjects which would be for the good of the city.

At the close of the talks an open regard to the home, but a full conference was held. Mayor An-

Western Electric Vacuum Sweeper

"The Efficient Sweeper"

You know, perhaps from experience, that even strong suction alone will not pick up threads or lint or imbedded dirt. It will take up only surface dirt.

The Western Electric Vacuum Sweeper combines a motor-driven brush with a strong suction.

The gentle action of the brush taps the rug and loosens the imbedded dirt at the roots of the nap and the suction carries it into the bag.

This ground-in, unseen dirt is what shears off the nap of the rug, causing worn, bare spots to appear. It is the most injurious sort of dirt that collects and it is this dirt that most cleaners leave.

Don't miss the opportunity to try out one of these Western Electric Vacuum Sweepers.

Telephone 2404 and we will send one to your home.

WITHOUT QUESTIONVeronese Blame United States
for Not Promptly Making Austria a Loan.

Verona, March 26.—"What is the Austrian attitude toward us; how do they feel about America?" This question falls from the lips of every American entering Vienna when he meets members of the American press, and American Red Cross workers.

A truthful answer is seldom received, for the Veronese finds soft nation to be his second nature; just as the Berliner tactlessly answers with unnecessarily blunt replies. A Berliner answered: "America is a piece of gold which lays golden eggs; the golden eggs are nice, but unfortunately for us she is neither an eagle nor an owl, but only a goose in the international political world."

The Veronese will tell you how much he appreciates the Red Cross relief work. He will express the hope America will cooperate with England and France in the promised international loan. For the last year, Vienna, like the mythical Tantalus, has been an interallied loan to feed her starving babies, dangling just out of her reach. Not a week has passed but what the Vienna papers have carried dispatches from London or from Paris, stating that England and France were attempting to arrange an interallied loan; all that was needed was America's participation.

We furnish the money. England and France never explained exactly why it is impossible to have an interallied loan without the participation of the United States. America didn't wait for the moral or material support of any other nations before she started her relief work for the children of Austria. It rather looked, say the residents of Vienna, as if the allies were to furnish the idea and America the money in the interallied loan; the credit and thankfulness for the humanitarian work to be equally divided.

"If America would come out flatly and say she will contribute one-third of any loan England and France wish to make, it would stop a lot of articles in the Austrian papers which ultimately have the effect of anti-American propaganda," said a United States consular officer in discussing the subject with the International News service correspondent.

These Troublesome Loans.

The Vienna Freie Presse is typical of the attitude of Austria toward the United States. "England has asked Washington to cancel her debt," says the Freie Presse. "England owes the United States $4,250,000,000. Before the war England was the greatest creditor nation, but now the land is deeply in debt to the United States. Although this powerful world empire is at the crest of its might, and its ability to pay is unquestionable, it feels it necessary to take this step to make its debts more bearable."

"France owes America almost $2,500,000,000. Italy more than $1,500,000,000 and even Belgium more than $200,000,000. These amounts together, almost $5,000,000,000 are firm debts binding the entente to America and making them daily and hourly dependent upon America's patience."

"It's a peculiar contradiction that this financial dependence so far has had so little political effect. It has been again and again noticeable since the end of the war that the Entente Powers have shown but little regard and but little consideration for the wishes and needs of the United States."

"Although Washington has declared the proposal unacceptable, England took it necessary to renew the attempt to secure a cancellation of her debt. France is following a similar plan in attempting to make some arrangements for the settlement of her interest due America."

"I wish everyone in Paris and London to ask themselves: 'What is the result of this?'"

KRAMER GIVES HIS VIEWS ON DRY LAWS

Difficulties in Enforcing Prohibition Are Pointed Out.

Washington, April 1.—Difficulties in enforcing national prohibition include hostile public sentiment, lack of cooperation by the states, bootlegging on the borders and issuance of too many dealers' permits, according to John F. Kramer, federal prohibition commissioner.

What he termed as his "honest views" on prohibition were given by Kramer in a letter to Senator Capper of Kansas and made public by the latter.

The government, Kramer wrote, has been loath to interfere with "home brew" activities. "This," he said, "in my mind is a sad, an adventure. Many who have engaged in it have already ceased and it will, as I view it, die out from its own results."

"In view of all these conditions and circumstances," said Kramer, "I believe we have made remarkable progress. We still have much to do and will have for years to come. You can't turn the current of history over night."

Kramer said the Volstead law itself was sound; that he was not advocating any radical revision of the law by congress, and that enforcement problems largely were administrative.

Succeeds Williamson.
Columbus, April 1.—Appointment of Newton M. Miller, primary campaign manager for Senator Willis, as collector of internal revenue for the Eleventh district of Ohio, with headquarters at Columbus, was announced at Washington. He succeeds Beriah E. Williamson.

Adding as a postscript, "Burn this letter," is your cue to start the conflagration yourself.

BRITISH ENTER AN EMPHATIC DENIAL

Excesses in Ireland Not Condoned by Government.

Washington, April 1.—General conclusions of the imperial commission of the committee of one hundred in investigating conditions in Ireland, placing moral responsibility for disorders there on the British government, and wholly misleading in a statement issued by the British embassy in answer to the commission's report.

The report, the embassy statement said, "was entitled to exactly the amount of weight which should be given to any judgment based entirely upon the evidence of ex-parte statements and put forward for the most part by persons admittedly holding extreme views."

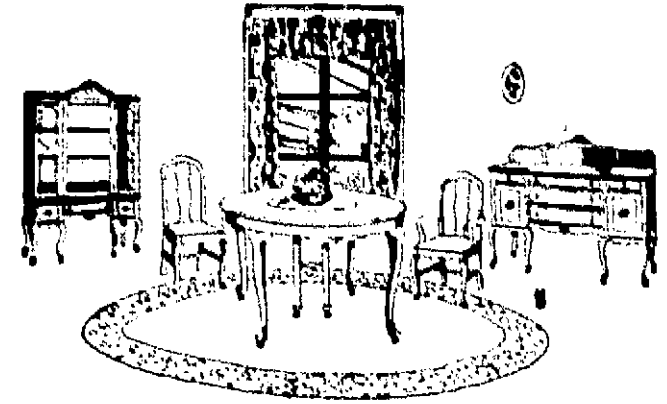

"That crown forces (in Ireland) under almost incredible provocation patiently borne during many months, have on some occasions broken the bonds of discipline and committed unjustifiable acts of violence is not denied," the embassy statement continued, "but to say that such acts have been ordered, or condoned by the British government, is absolutely false."

Nothing else so enhances the value of a thing as difficulty in obtaining it.

Daily Proverb—"Ignorance and prosperity make men bold and confident."

March came in like a lamb, all right, but it went out like a fish.

Beat the fellow who will hold them for higher prices to it. Store eggs for the coming fall and winter while they are cheap!

Of all the people of Europe, the Greeks appear to be the only ones who took seriously that stuff about driving the Turks out of Europe.

Maybe it would prove just as well should Uncle Henry Ford give up that tireless bus and devote his time exclusively to his synthetic cow.

It's our guess that, with beer a medicine, there are going to be a lot of new diseases which will not seriously interfere with locomotion.

We see that Lloyd George is going to be put out of business again. The fellows who have been making guesses about Lloyd George haven't made enough hits even to qualify for places in the weather bureau.

Might it not be just as well to start these balloon troutys well toward the center of our land, to obviate in a great degree the possibility of coming down in swamps or great bodies of water?

It is apparent that that haunted house story should have been held and published today. As a matter of fact, all haunted house stories should be given publication April 1.

There's this to be said for the trouble between the Greeks and the Turks: It should result in giving the Armenians a sort of a rest.

Without going into the merits of the league as constituted, it may be said that the manner in which it was organized wasn't calculated to inspire the utmost confidence.

Marce, Henri Waterson reiterates that prohibition makes hypocrites, but something tells us that there must be some other agency at work for we personally knew at least two or three back in the time when the country was almost as wet as the Atlantic ocean.

We see that eggs are retailing at sixteen cents a dozen out in Springfield, Missouri, but doubtless, were we to call our grocer's attention to the statement, he would announce that he's from that state.

We are very much afraid that those who are holding out that Mr. O. W. Owensmouth, California, has the shortest known name—and we note that our own Dr. James Ball Naylor is among them—evidently have overlooked Mr. Ey, the Columbus manager of the Western Newspaper union.

MONACO AND GAMBLING.
 The National Geographic society directs attention in a recent publication to some facts concerning Monaco, the principality in which Monte Carlo is located, which present that state in an unfavorable light. Gambling is the life of this little country, and most of the activities of the 22,000 people are connected directly or indirectly with gaming and gamblers, of whom as many as 2,000,000 are entertained in the course of a year.

There is no important industry or trade in Monaco. "The people live on the money brought in by the gamblers. In the sense of a being that lives at the expense of others Monaco may properly be called a parasite among the nations. The most shameful feature of the situation is that the government of the state not only consents at the gambling, but actually is in charge of it and derives all its revenues from this source.

The casino of Monte Carlo is patronized by thousands of foreign visitors who would not enter a gambling-house at home and would object to the establishment of a Monte Carlo in their own country. For from home, amid elegant surroundings, and under government charges the chance of chance at Monte Carlo do not seem so reprehensible.

KEYKO

A Better Butter
Substitute.

This Will Introduce Keyko to Marion.

Spread KEYKO on delicate bread or a fragile wafer, note how easily and evenly it spreads. There are no hard lumps; no mushy places where the knife digs into the bread. You can spread dainty sandwiches with KEYKO.

KEYKO possesses all the "texture" of high grade butter. It is easily worked. It comes to the table just right for table use.

One great fault with butter substitutes heretofore has been the lack of "texture." Only an ice pick or a spoon would handle them.

Try a pound of KEYKO and you will get the "feel" of butter the instant you put a knife into it. Our exclusive methods give KEYKO this ideal body.

KEYKO

A Better Butter Substitute.

This Will Introduce Keyko to Marion.

Spread KEYKO on delicate bread or a fragile wafer, note how easily and evenly it spreads. There are no hard lumps; no mushy places where the knife digs into the bread. You can spread dainty sandwiches with KEYKO.

KEYKO possesses all the "texture" of high grade butter. It is easily worked. It comes to the table just right for table use.

One great fault with butter substitutes heretofore has been the lack of "texture." Only an ice pick or a spoon would handle them.

Try a pound of KEYKO and you will get the
"feel" of butter the instant you put a knife into it.
Our exclusive methods give KEYKO this ideal body.

PROTECT INTERESTS OF FARMERS, HE SAYS

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace Issues a Statement.

Washington, April 1.—Protection for the farmers on an equality with manufacturers and industrial interests in any tariff policy which is to be decided upon and added to any rates which may be levied on an amount equal to the extra freight charges in getting products to the consuming centers," was urged in a statement by Secretary Wallace.

The "heavy additional burden" imposed on the producers by increased freight rates, the secretary declared, are a "potential impediment upon our own producers and to the benefit of our foreign competitors."

Manufacturers are "naturally and properly" urged to meet the competition in the world market and to divide a tariff to protect their own interests.

Secretary Wallace said that the situation facing the producers must be considered in any tariff policy, whether emergency or permanent. "Producers," he said, are getting prices below cost of production, not alone because of increased business conditions at home, but because of the importation of competing foreign products.

The action taken after it is up-

The Royal

Cleans linoleum, hardwood floors; it even cleans concrete. In all this talk about electric cleaners, you seldom hear of complete cleaning service—the cellar-to-attic kind of cleaning.

The Royal Electric Cleaner is designed to sell on just that sort of service basis; it does not rely upon stunt demonstrations. Because the actually is a COMPLETE cleaner; it is effective and thorough, not only upon rugs and carpets of any texture, but upon linoleums, bare floors, even concrete and for a great variety of fabric, upholstery and nook-and-cranny cleaning.

Buy your Royal Electric Cleaner as an investment. Used sensibly it will last many years and the cost is trifling compared with its time-saving, health-saving service.

TOM MIX
DIRECTION WILLIAM FOX

Tom Mix, the greatest horseman of the screen, comes to the Grand Monday, in his latest picture, "Prairie Trails," a corking western story adapted from James H. Hendry's novel, "Prairie Flowers." and it is a most suitable vehicle for Mix, coupling hard and daring riding, straight shooting and extreme nerve and skill in dangerous "stunts." It is promised that Mix has never made anything so exciting or thrilling nor has he ever had so strong a story. Clyde Cook, the sensational new screen comedian, will be offered on the same program in his new two-part comedy, "The Jockey," a screaming laughdog of a new style. It will be a hundred per cent. program without a doubt.—Adv

SUNDAY-SCHOOL MEET HERE APRIL 7 AND 8

Young People's Conference at the Same Time.

SPLENDID PROGRAMS FOR BOTH GATHERINGS

Sunday-School Meeting at Calvary Church—Young People Gather at Christian.

The annual Marion County Sunday-school convention will be held at the Calvary Evangelical church April 7 and 8. On the latter date the Marion County Young People's conference will be held at the Central Christian church.

Rev. F. E. Hawes, of the publicity committee of both meetings, today announced that the programs presented this year are the most elaborate ever offered in the county. "The best available talent has been secured, he says, and every phase of Bible school work will be considered. Expert workers will be on hand to consult with teachers, Sunday-school and Young People's workers. Besides the programs a feature will be the awarding of the Sunday-school Workers' library to the school having the best representation.

Future Leadership.
"We are living in a day when emphasis is being laid upon future leadership. Characters of tomorrow are in the molds today. One way to prevent a repetition of the present crime wave, in future years is to instill in the minds and lives of the youth of our land, higher and nobler ideals. And what organization can better do this than our thousands of Bible schools? The Sunday-school is at last finding its proper place in minds of world leaders. "Broad minded and far-seeing men and women are recognizing it as a mighty moral factor in nation building. This year, one needs only to glance at the program of our annual Sunday-school convention to discover that our associational officers and leaders are live wires.

"Every person interested in the welfare of the youth of our land should strive to attend all sessions of this wonderful convention."

To Find the Cost of Material Necessary for Painting Your Buildings With

Thrift Paint

Multiply the number of feet around the building by the height of same. The result will be the number of square feet of surface, and the cost, if you use Thrift Paint, will be one cent for each square foot for the nicest two-coat job possible to obtain.

Then if you wish to figure further divide the cost by five and you will ascertain the cost per year to keep your building properly protected and appearing to the best advantage.

Take your pencil and try it, you will be surprised how low it figures.

A captain of industry talking to some young men recently, referred to the time when he was out of employment and had to borrow $50.

Somebody asked him what he did with it, and he said, "I put $42.50 into a new suit of clothes and kept $7.50 for lunches. Two days later I landed a job, and if ever I'm broke again, I'm going to repeat the experiment. It proved to me that a good appearance is the beginning of prosperity."
